Renewal of Nippon Express' IR Information Site

Nippon Express Co., Ltd., has released redesigned website for IR Information at the end of October, 2013. Upon this renewal, we expanded contents and renewed categories so that users can reach information they need much easier than before. In addition, we renewed global IR Information site as well to improve non-Japanese speakers' accessibility.

Major Renewal Points

1. Contents expansion and renewed category
2. New web design
3. New global (English) IR Information site as well as Japanese site
4. Real time stock price information service
5. Financial data download service
6. E-mail alert service to notice updates of some of web contents

Nippon Express will keep on trying to improve its IR activities and provide appropriate information to help investors and shareholders who want to know about Nippon Express.
